They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."

(Autumn) Fall- Turning a New Leaf

I. Meditation:

Autumn is perfect for inviting the crisp, warm, cozy feeling of fall into our life. With a focus on letting go and making room for new growth, it will help you slow down and consider which direction you want to go with your life.

It's said Autumn is a season of opposites. As the weather begins to cool down outside, we bring the warmth inside with the warm scents of cinnamon, apple, pumpkin, and cozy wood fires. We can feel both the warmth of the sun and the whisper of frost in the air. May we find it helpful to consider some opposites in our life: places of tension and of relaxation that exist in harmony. May we also find it helpful to ponder on how letting go of some things gives us more room to grow.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Pray for us.

II. Prayer:

God of all seasons, we thank you for autumn.
We thank you for the touch of coolness in the air that gives us a new burst of energy, for the coloring of trees that shows the creativity of the Divine Artist, for the falling leaves that reveal the strength of the branches,
for the hues of fields that bring peace to our souls,
for the smiles on pumpkins that bring joy to children,
for the fall harvest that brings us gratitude for the bounty of our land, for this change of seasons that reveals the circle of life.
God of all seasons, as you transform the earth, transform us by Your Spirit.
Amen.

"Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name: you are mine." Isaiah 43:1

World Mission Sunday is next week, October 20th. Pope Francis' message for 2024 is, "Go and invite everyone to the banquet (cf. Mt 22:9)." His gospel urgency calls us to evangelize the world for the wedding feast of His own Son's sacrifice of victory. We are called to offer our prayers and financial help for the Church's missionary work. Please be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for the Missions. Thank you!
